

LIBERTY TRAVEL OFFERS DIFFERENT DEFINITION OF WINTER WONDERLANDS

Sun-washed beaches and warm blue waters ideal for swimming and snorkeling might not be the first images that come to mind with the phrase 'Winter Wonderland,' but for decades, destinations like Mexico, the Caribbean and Bali are exactly that – wonderlands that offer a perfect escape from the year's coldest months.

This week, Liberty Travel is introducing numerous offers on such destinations, including:

In Cancun: Three nights at the all-inclusive Crown Paradise Club Cancun from $519 per person. The resort is popular with families, and as a bonus, guests receive unlimited green fees.

In Jamaica: Four nights at the all-inclusive Rose Hall Resort & Spa, a Hilton Resort, from $865 per person.

In Bali: Four nights at the The Chedi Club at Tanah Gajah from $569 per person. Accommodations include butler service. Airfare is additional.

While the list features many more warm weather destinations, Liberty Travel also recognizes the more traditional idea of a "Winter Wonderland," with packages for several destinations where winter can be part of the experience.

For example, enjoying a cup of hot chocolate in Paris, or a cup of tea or coffee in Dublin just isn't the same during the summer, and both cities are undeniably pretty with a dusting of snow.

Pricing based on roundtrip airfare departing from New York, unless otherwise noted. Certain booking and travel dates apply. Additional taxes, government-imposed fees, terms and conditions may also apply.

Travelers can call 1-877-Liberty or visit libertytravel.com to find their nearest Liberty Travel location.

Media inquiries can be directed to:

Jameson Kowalczyk
201.934.3823
kowalczykj@libertytravel.com

Released on October 23, 2009