

CATCH A SNEAK PEAK OF THE WIZARDING WORLD OF HARRY POTTER
ON SUNDAY, JUNE 6

Fans of Harry Potter and Universal Studios Orlando have a chance to catch a sneak preview of the resort's newest attraction, The Wizarding World of Harry Potter.

Sunday, June 6th at 7:00pm (Eastern Time) NBC is scheduled to air a special that will treat viewers to an inside look at the making of The Wizarding World of Harry Potter, which will have its grand opening on June 18th.

During the special, viewers will experience:

- A tour of the immersive new land inspired by J.K. Rowling's compelling stories and characters
- A walk through the corridors inside the majestic Hogwarts castle and the cobbled streets of Hogsmeade.
- An exclusive cast commentary
- A sneak peek at the authentic details woven through the entire environment
- A look at the area's new marquee attraction, Harry Potter and the Forbidden Journey, which is said to be "so amazing that it will forever change the theme park attraction experience"

Already being called "one of the most widely anticipated theme park entertainment experiences ever created," The Wizarding World of Harry Potter at Universal Orlando Resort is the only place in the world where fans of the Harry Potter books and films will be able to experience the wonder, excitement and adventure of J.K Rowling's visionary universe brought to life.

Tune in to NBC Sunday, June 6 at 7:00pm for this can't-miss special.
