

BOOK CHRISTMAS IN JULY WITH GLOBUS

The December holidays are a high season for many travel plans ("black out dates" for many hotels often fall during the weeks of Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's). But for escorted tours in Europe the holidays are a "low season" that features fewer crowds and often great deals that travelers won't find during the rest of the year.

"Winter is a great time for Americans to make European travel dreams come true," said Steve Born, vice president of marketing for the Globus Family of Brands, in a recent press release. "They can take a vacation at a reduced price, while avoiding the crowds that converge during the summer travel months."

The Globus Family of Brands, considered the world's largest tour operator with more than 80 years of international travel experience, has for years offered a robust brochure of holiday tours, winter vacations and river cruises. In recent weeks, the Globus Family of Brands has unveiled their latest expertly designed escorted vacation, the nine-day Christmas in Paris and New Year's Eve in London itinerary.

Highlights of this brand new experience from Globus include:
