

AT LIBERTY TRAVEL: THREE GREAT OPTIONS FOR LAST MINUTE FAMILY VACATIONS THIS SUMMER

Summer has long been the most popular season of the year to take a vacation, and the summer of 2010 is certainly no exception: According to a recent report published by the U.S. Travel Association, more than half of Americans plan to take a vacation this summer, and more than half of those vacationers will be traveling on a family vacation.

With, summer is already well underway, the time to book a family summer vacation -- and to take advantage of the many great deals available on family summer vacations -- is getting shorter with each day. Here's a look at three deals for family summer vacations that you can book right now at Liberty Travel:

The Vacation: Four nights, Breezes Resort & Spa Trelawny (Jamaica) from $475 per person.

Why It's Perfect for Families: Kids 13 years old and younger "stay, play and eat free" at this Super-Inclusive® resort, which is a huge money-saver for families adhering to a budget. The kids program is divided into four age groups (6 months – 2 years, 3 – 7 years, 8 – 12 years and teens) fully supervised by a trained staff and featuring activities that emphasize educational fun. Activities include a rock-climbing wall, trapeze, and circus school in addition to swimming, volleyball, and water sports. The package also includes a $75 spa credit, a treat for parents. Babysitting is available after 5:00pm.

The Vacation: Three nights at Atlantis, Paradise Island with accommodations in the Atlantis Coral Towers from $625 per person.

Why It's Perfect For Families: Kids 11 and under "stay and play for free" on this vacation, and adults and kids alike will have the chance to revel in the unique attractions of Atlantis and Paradise Island, including its famous marine habitat (the largest in the world), home to over 50,000 sea animals living in 14 exhibit lagoons; the 63-acre Aquaventure water park, with slides that wind through the marine habitat; The Dig, an archeological site that lets you explore the ancient lost city of Atlantis; more than 20 swimming areas and three miles of beaches. There's also the Discover Kids Club and activities for teens that give young travelers a chance to make new friends, while parents enjoy their own diversions including the luxurious 30,000-square-foot Mandara Spa and an 18-hole golf course!

The Vacation: A four-day Western Caribbean cruise aboard Royal Caribbean's Grandeur of the Seas sailing on July 22, from $389 per person.

Why It's Perfect for Families: Cruising is truly a style of vacation that appeals to all ages, and Royal Caribbean really rolls out the red carpet for parents traveling with kids, with everything from cabins that can comfortably fit up to four, to complimentary kids programs led by college-educated Youth Staff featuring age-appropriate curriculums: Royal Babies and Royal Tots (ages 0-3), Aquanauts (ages 3-5), Explorers (ages 6-8), Voyagers (9-11), as well as Teen Only venues like Fuel Night Club and the Living Room. Other onboard features include a rock-climbing wall, sports court, arcade, pool, Broadway-style shows and of course, lots of great food. Shore excursions in Key West and Cozumel offer fun shore excursions that are great bonding experiences.

Pricing varies depending on departure city and travel dates. Airfare additional on cruise vacations. Certain terms and conditions apply.

Travelers interested in booking one of these vacations can contact a Liberty Travel Vacation Expert by calling 1.877.Liberty or enquiring online at libertytravel.com.

ENDS

Released July 1, 2010

Contact: PR@libertytravel.com