

BOOK WITH LIBERTY TRAVEL, GET UP TO $1,500 RESORT CREDIT AT PALACE RESORTS

Travelers who enjoy sun-washed beaches, posh accommodations and all-around luxurious all-inclusive vacations take note: With an offer now available for booking at Liberty Travel, Palace Resorts® is inviting its guests to indulge with up to 1,500 Vacation Dollars at all Palace Resorts.

The promotion is called "1,500 Vacation Dollars for your Indulgences" and is valid on travel through December 23, 2011.

Resort credit is a popular added-value amenity on vacation packages, but is typically offered in amounts ranging from $50-$100. A $200 resort credit would be considered on the high-end of the spectrum. Though these amounts may seem small, they go a long way at an all-inclusive resort where all meals, drinks, activities and sometimes tours and excursions are included.

By comparison, Palace's 1,500 Vacation Dollars offer is rare, uncommon and aptly described as indulging.

To qualify for the 1,500 Vacation Dollars, travelers must book a stay of five nights or more. On stays of three and four nights, travelers are eligible to receive $750 Vacation Dollars.

The Vacation Dollars can be spent on Palace's Weddings Collection, golf, spa/beauty salon, upgraded wine selection, romantic dinner packages, and room upgrades. Vacation Dollars can also be spent on the optional tours available at Palace Resorts, a diverse, robust list that includes everything from swimming with dolphins and snorkeling, to zip-lining and tours of Mayan ruins, to city tours and water parks.

Guests are free to choose how they would like to spend their 1,500 Vacation Dollars, with a few restrictions. For example, a maximum of $300 can be applied toward spa and beauty services during stays of five nights or longer (maximum $150 for stays of three to four nights). And at Vallarta Palace, a maximum of $300 can be applied toward golf for stays of five nights or longer (maximum $150 for stays of three to four nights).

But for the most part, guests can spend their 1,500 Vacation Dollars to indulge however they would like.
