

LAS VEGAS TRAVEL DEALS UNDER $300

It's the only city in the world with a neon skyline. Tens of millions of travelers visit every year to marvel at the sights and sounds, and revel in the world-class entertainment and nightlife. It's been the setting of many popular films and is undeniably an icon of American culture. There is only one Las Vegas and right now, you can book these three Las Vegas vacations for less than $300 per person.

With its iconic, giant-sized gold lion commanding attention out front, the MGM Grand is one of the most recognizable names and sights on The Strip, and right now, you can book a three-night stay starting at $229 per person (including airfare). The MGM Grand is the second largest hotel in the world, and the property features an impressive amount of entertainment, amenities and experiences, including the city's largest casino, 16 restaurants, Cirque du Soleil's production Kà, the 18-and-over performance art of La Femme, Studio 54 Las Vegas (a recreation of the famous New York City nightclub), and 6.6 acres of pools, rivers and waterfalls.

Vdara Hotel & Spa is one of the newest additions to The Strip, and for a limited time three-night stays can be booked for as low as $265 per person (including airfare). Part of CityCenter and boasting all-suite accommodations and a posh two-level spa and fitness center, the Vdara stands out as a peaceful sanctuary amid the fast-paced atmosphere of The Strip. There is no casino, no gaming and no smoking within the hotel. Guests here enjoy a retreat that offers relaxation and serenity, but is only steps away from the excitement.

Those who have stayed on The Strip before and are interested in exploring Downtown Las Vegas can book three nights at The Golden Nugget for as low as $189 per person (including airfare). Though The Golden Nugget passes on the over-the-top motifs of The Strip in favor of classic Las Vegas glamour, it does revel in the city's trademark excess, with a 45,000-square-foot casino and a 61lb. gold nugget on display in the lobby. It has also won consecutive AAA 4-Diamond Awards every year since 1977. The pool is rated one of the best in Las Vegas, and features The Tank, a shark aquarium that lets you get an up-close, underwater look at the ocean's predators from the safety of chlorinated waters and a 30-foot tube waterslide. There's also a spa, onsite shopping, and an arcade for kids.
