

AT LIBERTY TRAVEL: ALL INCLUSIVE VACATIONS FROM $515 WITH AIR

This week Liberty Travel has some of the best deals on all-inclusive fall vacations in destinations throughout the Caribbean and Mexico. Prices start at under $515 per person, for some gateways, and include all meals, drinks, activities, gratuities and more.

The $515 per person price point is for a three-night getaway in Riviera Maya, Mexico, with accommodations at the Iberostar Paraiso del Mar, an upscale resort set amid lush surrounding, alongside a three-quarter-mile stretch of white sand beach. Families, couples and friends vacation here, and kids 12 and under stay and eat free.

There are many other all-inclusive packages available, at a variety of price ranges:

*From $575 per person, three nights at Occidental Grand Cozumel

*From $649 per person, three nights in the Bahamas at RIU Palace Paradise Island (includes $25 massage credit and an introductory scuba lesson)

*From $675 per person, four nights in the Dominican Republic at Dreams Punta Cana Resort & Spa (includes $200 resort credit)

*From $679 per person, four nights at Melia Puerto Vallarta (plus save 20% off on golf)

*From $769 per person, four nights at Breezes Resort, Spa & Casino Curacao

With sandy, tropical beaches, sunny locales, and relaxed atmospheres that let guests feel worlds away, all-inclusive resorts like these rank high among the most sought-after vacation experiences. They also great value for travelers vacationing on a budget.

While room rates for non-inclusive resorts are sometimes more affordable at the time of booking, travelers who book a non-inclusive stay can end up spending more during their trip. Purchasing meals, drinks, entertainment, activities, and even the occasional cup of coffee can add up quickly. At an all-inclusive resort, all these amenities are included with the stay, along with some others: daytime activities, nightly entertainment, even tours and day trips at certain resorts.

All offers are subject to availability. Pricing is based on roundtrip airfare departing from New York. Additional taxes, government-imposed fees, terms and conditions may also apply. For details and bookings travelers can call 1-877-Liberty or visit libertytravel.com to find their nearest Liberty Travel location.

ENDS

Release on August 13, 2010

Contact; PR@libertytravel.com