

LIBERTY TRAVEL HAS LIMITED TIME OFFER ON NORWEGIAN CRUISE LINE
NICKELODEON AT SEA CRUISES

Liberty Travel has a special limited time promotion on two 2011 Nickelodeon™ All Access cruises with Norwegian Cruise Line: a seven-day Florida and Bahamas cruise aboard the Norwegian Jewel sailing from New York on February 20th; and a seven-day Western Mediterranean cruise aboard the Norwegian Epic sailing from Barcelona on July 24th. Vacationers who book their staterooms on either (or both) these sailings by September 13, 2010 can reserve their stateroom for reduced deposits on select categories, plus receive onboard credit.

Onboard credit is dependent on the stateroom category booked, starting at $25 onboard credit for an inside stateroom. For a balcony stateroom the amount is $75. Amounts are $100 or higher for deluxe balcony staterooms, suites and garden villas.

Available exclusively on select cruises with Norwegian Cruise Line, Nickelodeon™ at Sea offers a one-of-a-kind family vacation with activities like messy game shows, music parties with Dora the Explorer, breakfast with Nickelodeon characters. On a Nickelodeon All Access vacation, Norwegian Cruise Line is upping the ante with all the features of a Nickelodeon at Sea cruise plus even more "family styled nautical nonsense" – more characters, more chances to get slimed, premieres and never-before-seen episodes of hit Nickelodeon TV shows, appearances by the stars of Nick TV shows, a brand new stage show starring none other than SpongeBob Squarepants himself, and plenty of surprises.

Prices start at $949 per person for the Florida and Bahamas cruise aboard the Norwegian Jewel on February 20, 2011, and $1359 per person for the Western Mediterranean cruise aboard the Norwegian Epic on July 24, 2011. Pricing does not include airfare. Certain booking and travel dates apply. Additional taxes and government-imposed fees may also apply.

To book either of these Nickelodeon All Access vacations with Norwegian Cruise Line, and for terms and conditions of pricing, reduced deposit and onboard credit, travelers should contact a Liberty Travel Vacation Expert by calling 1.877.Liberty or inquiring online at libertytravel.com.
