

LIBERTY TRAVEL'S ULTIMATE EUROPE SALE EXTENDED

Travel agency Liberty Travel has extended the dates of their Ultimate Europe Sale by a full week. Travelers now have until September 4, 2010 to book what are some of the year's best offerings on fall and winter travel to destinations throughout Europe, including Italy, France, the United Kingdom and Spain, as well as other European favorites such as Austria, Prague and Amsterdam.

As true for most of the world's travel destinations, summer is the most popular season to visit Europe, offering warm temperatures and long hours of daylight. However, fall and winter offer their own distinct advantages for travelers, mainly the opportunity to "beat the crowds," which can result in everything from shorter lines at popular attractions and shorter waiting times at restaurants, to a more authentic experience with a destination that is less crowded with tourists.

Prices also tend to be excellent during the fall and winter travel season, as hotels compete for the patronage of a smaller number of travelers. Liberty Travel's Ultimate Europe Sale features hotel prices starting at $195 per person (for a four-night stay in Rome), as well as offers that include added value offers like free nights, sightseeing tours and 2-for-1 dining:

-In Salzburg, Austria: Four nights at the four-star Mercure Salzburg City from $239 per person (fourth night is free). Price includes full breakfast daily and "Traces of Mozart City Tour."

- In London, UK: Six nights at Thistle Kensington Gardens from $559 per person (sixth night is free). Price includes English breakfast daily and 2-for-1 dining.

-In Florence, Italy: Four nights at Hotel L'Orologio from $415 per person (fourth night is free). Price includes American buffet breakfast daily and "Tour of Florence."

As part of the Ultimate Europe Sale, Liberty Travel is giving away two 4-night stays in Europe, with accommodations with two of Europe's top hotel brands.

The prize for the first giveaway is a four-night stay for two in Amsterdam at Sofitel Amsterdam The Grand, a luxury hotel set inside a 17th century building, within walking distance of many of the capital city's major attractions, including the Van Gogh Museum, the Rijksmuseum, the flower market, and its famous canals.

The prize for the second giveaway let's the winner and their guest choose a four-night stay at one of eight K+K Hotels in six cities: London, Paris, Munich, Vienna, Budapest, Prague and Bucharest. All are set in central locations within their respective cities, offering guests convenient access to major sights and attractions.
