

AT LIBERTY TRAVEL: SAVE 40% AT PARADISUS PLAYA CONCHAL

Liberty Travel has an opportunity for travelers to save 40% on a stay at the Paradisus Playa Conchal, a 4.5-star luxury resort located in Guanacaste. A beachside setting, all-suite accommodations, a Robert Trent Jones Jr. golf course, and a posh spa make this one of the top properties in Costa Rica.

With a recently-extended booking window, travelers now have until September 30th, 2010 to save 40% when they book their stay at this resort. The offer is valid on stays through December 17th, 2010.

The 40% off applies to both adult and child guests. With the discount, the price of an average four-night stay in November totals $626 per person, based on double occupancy in a Deluxe Garden Junior Suite, which features a living area and a private terrace or balcony.

An elegant, modern and beautifully designed village surrounding a lagoon-style pool, Paradisus Playa Conchal is recognized as one of the leading hotels in Costa Rica. It is located in the Guanacaste province, in the northwest part of the country, where it sprawls over 2,400 lush acres of land that are fronted by a long stretch of beach. Accommodations are housed in two-story villas set amid meandering walkways, bubbling fountains, shimmering lakes, and tropical gardens. The property boasts eight dining options and five bars and lounges.

In addition to golf, favorite pastimes include life enriching activities such as cooking classes, wine tasting, flower arranging, bird watching, massage, painting and tango dancing, as well as tennis, kayaking, canopy tours, sunset cruises, biking and snorkeling.

Pricing does not include airfare and is subject to terms and conditions. Certain booking and travel dates apply, and offer is subject to availability. For terms and conditions and to book this trip, travelers can contact a Liberty Travel Vacation Expert by calling 1.877.Liberty or inquiring online at libertytravel.com.

Release on September 3, 2010
Contact: PR@libertytravel.com