

SAVE THE DATE: LIBERTY TRAVEL'S SEMI-ANNUAL HONEYMOON SALE
STARTS FRIDAY SEPT. 10TH

Travel agency Liberty Travel is launching their 4-Day Semi-Annual Honeymoon Sale with a special one-day-only in-store event on Friday, September 10, 2010. The event is taking place at all 160 Liberty Travel locations and features a chance for couples to save up to an additional $1,000 when they book a honeymoon, destination wedding or other romantic getaway.

The chance to save $1,000 on a romantic getaway is a huge opportunity, but it's only the beginning of what couples will find at the in-store event. The sale itself features deals on travel packages in the world's top destinations for romance, including the Caribbean, Mexico, Fiji, Italy and many others. Packages include romantic added-value amenities like breakfast in bed, couples spa treatments, romantic dining, welcome gifts, flower petal turndown and more. Many of these are exclusive offers, available only at Liberty Travel during the 4-Day Semi-Annual Honeymoon Sale

The in-store event on September 10th is also the perfect opportunity for brides- and grooms-to-be to talk to a Liberty Travel Vacation Expert about honeymoon travel – the latest trends, the popular hotels, destinations other couples are going, and unique ideas to make the occasion even more romantic and special.

Honeymoons in particular are trips where the services of a travel professional are seen as a necessity. Even couples who are used to planning and booking their vacations with a self-service site book their honeymoons with a travel agent. Since a honeymoon represents such a special occasion in two people's lives together, a honeymoon requires more planning than a normal vacation -- the kind of planning that travel agents like Liberty Travel's Vacation Experts specialize in. An extra level of planning translates an extra level of romance during the trip, a more special occasion for the newlyweds, and a memorable beginning to marriage.

Liberty Travel's 4-Day Semi-Annual Honeymoon Sale begins Friday September 10th with the one-day-only in-store event. For details about the event and the 4-Day Semi-Annual Honeymoon Sale, couples can visit libertytravel.com or call a Liberty Travel Vacation Expert at 1.877.Liberty.
