

Liberty Travel Has Free Verandah Upgrade on Holland America Caribbean Cruises

At Liberty Travel, cruisers can take advantage of a special promotion from Holland America Line: Book an ocean-view stateroom on select Caribbean Cruises and receive a Free Verandah Upgrade.

One of the world's top cruise lines, Holland America is known for cruises that capture the classic feel of luxury leisure voyages while offering all the upscale amenities of the modern era--everything from kids activities to lavish onboard spas, and of course, delectable cuisine, entertainment, and fantastic shore excursions. There is an average of one crewmember per every two guests on Holland America cruises. Staterooms are elegant, appointed with Egyptian cotton towels, designer bath amenities, their signature Mariner's Dream™ beds, 24-hour room service, and much more.

Verandah staterooms are among the most sought-after accommodations on Holland America cruises (anyone who wants to upgrade higher will have to book one of the impressively opulent suites, which, if you have the budget, are highly recommended). The chance to get upgraded to a Verandah stateroom for free is a huge opportunity--any traveler that enjoys cruising and has a taste for the upscale will not want to miss out.

The Free Verandah upgrade offer is valid on select Caribbean cruises sailing in 2011. Itineraries include six and seven day cruises aboard several ships, including ms Westerdam, ms Eurodam, and the ms Nieuw Amersterdam, and others.
