

Exclusive Offer During Liberty Travel's One-Day Sale With Celebrity Cruises

On Wednesday November 17th, 2010 Liberty Travel is having a one-day sale on Celebrity Cruises. The sale gives cruisers the chance to combine three added-value offers when they book a Celebrity Cruise on this day.

Cruisers who book a stateroom on any Celebrity departure, in any stateroom category on November 17th will receive an Exceptional Value Booklet that contains a potential $250 worth of onboard savings. This is an exclusive offer available only at Liberty Travel.

The November 17th exclusive offer is also combinable with two other offers. One gives cruisers up to $100 onboard credit when they book an ocean view stateroom (or higher category). The other lets cruisers reserve their stateroom for a 50% reduced deposit. Reduced deposit is a helpful feature with short-notice promotions like this, because it allows cruisers to reserve their stateroom for a discounted price. Though they will have to pay in full before they cruise, it allows them to take advantage of limited-time offers even if they cannot pay in full on short notice.

Celebrity Cruises is one of the world's top cruise lines, known for its fleet of ships that pair the grandeur of classic luxury ocean liners with modern amenities that go beyond the expectations of discerning travelers. Vacations with celebrity offer something for all ages, kids as well as adults. Itineraries include swimming, spots, fitness classes, live shows and entertainment, bars and lounges, themed evenings, casinos, wine tastings, auctions and lectures. The cruise line is also popular with couples planning a wedding or vow renewal at sea, offering wedding and reception packages that can include videography, photography, tuxedo rentals, wedding cakes and more.
