As part of their new promotion on escorted tours, Liberty Travel is giving away a 7-day "Introduction to Ireland" tour with Globus. Entries can be submitted at libertytravel.com/contest.

Globus is one of the world's leading names in escorted travel, with over 80 years of international travel experience. Globus has earned many industry awards and built a well-deserved reputation for enriching the travel experience for guests. Expert tour directors, incredible sightseeing, and an emphasis on the stories behind the sights are all part of the Globus experience. The tour operator also offers eleven distinct travel styles, including tours for families, romantic couples, solo travelers, first-timers and experienced globetrotters.

Highlights on the "Introduction to Ireland" tour include sightseeing in Dublin, with visits to O'Connell Street and St. Patrick's Cathedral; scheduled stops in Kildare and Limerick; two nights in Ennis; a visit to The Cliffs of Moher; Irish hospitality at Rathbaun Farm, where travelers can see a farmer shear a sheep and direct a flock with a sheep dog; the Blarney Stone; the Ring of Kerry, and more. The tour includes all accommodations and transportation between destinations, as well as daily breakfast and a welcome dinner in Dublin. Travelers will also have time to explore on their own. The tour begins and ends in Dublin.
