

Only Two Weeks Left To Enter Liberty Travel's Best Engagement Story EVER Contest

Liberty Travel's Best Engagement Story EVER Video Contest closes for entries on March 25, leaving only two weeks left for couples to submit an entry.

Launched last month during Liberty Travel's XOXO Sale, the contest invites couples to create and share a video telling their engagement story. The top three entries will be chosen by a public vote, and each will win a 4-day/3-day night Luxury Included® vacation at Sandals Resorts in either Jamaica, St. Lucia or Antigua (the first place entry receives first choice of which island they would like to visit, the second place entry second choice, the third place entry third choice). All three prizes also include airfare.

The contest has received a strong response, with more than 30 entries to date. Additionally, thousands of votes have been cast to deciding which entry is the best. Couples are encouraged to promote their video via social media.

Couples are also encouraged to be as creative as they want, and entries feature everything from rap performances, movie trailers, flash mobs, narratives, and llamas, to proposals at Sears, Yankee Stadium and after skydiving.

Detailed instructions on how to enter, as well as full terms and conditions, descriptions of the prizes and more information can be found by visiting libertytravel.com/contest or libertytravel.strutta.com/about.

The contest closes for entries on March 25, 2011.
