

The Perfect Gift Card For Travelers

With the official start of the holiday shopping season only a week away, many shoppers are looking for gift ideas for those on their list.

In the past decade gift cards have become a mainstay for gift-giving occasions, and for good reason. There are numerous advantages for both the shopper and the person receiving the gift. Since they fit in an envelope, they save space (especially if you're traveling for the holidays) and cut down on clutter. Gift cards are also a fun to spend, and can make a shopping outing much more affordable.

Anyone who is shopping for an avid traveler, a person who is planning an upcoming trip, or someone who might need a little extra encouragement to take a vacation might want to consider purchasing a Liberty Travel gift card.

Liberty Travel gift cards can be redeemed toward the purchase of flights, hotel stays, vacations, cruises, escorted tours and more.

Of course, most people will not have the shopping budget to purchase an entire trip for someone, but they don't need to. Liberty Travel gift cards are available in any amount, and therefore perfect for gifts of all sizes. They can make a perfect small gift that helps a frequent traveler save a few extra dollars the next time he or she is heading out of town, or a larger gift for a friend or relative who is planning an upcoming vacation.

Liberty Travel Gift Cards are also great for shoppers who are teaming up to purchase one large gift for a friend, coworker, or family member; one person alone may not be able to give a gift card that covers the cost of an entire vacation, but several people (or an entire office) contributing certainly can.

Recently, Liberty Travel unveiled several new styles of gift cards. To get a look at the new styles, shoppers can visit libertytravel.com.

To purchase a Liberty Travel gift card, shoppers can visit any of Liberty Travel's more than 160 store locations within the U.S. Those looking for a nearby store location can visit libertytravel.com.
