

Top Places for Caribbean Weddings At Liberty Travel

Liberty Travel's newly unveiled XOXO Sale -- the travel agency's biggest sale on romantic travel -- is the perfect opportunity for couples who are thinking about or planning a destination wedding.

In the past decade destination weddings have become a growing trend among couples, and for good reason. Jetting off to say "I do" in a different part of the world is glamorous, memorable, exciting and romantic.

It is also turning out to be highly affordable, sometimes even more affordable than planning a traditional wedding at home, with some resorts even offering complimentary wedding packages for guests who book a certain number of rooms or room nights.

Sandals and Beaches Resorts offer wedding packages by Martha Stewart Weddings, and some wedding themes are complimentary to couples who book a qualifying number of room nights. Weddings at these resorts include the services of a professional wedding consultant, a cake, breakfast in bed and many other amenities, plus all the inclusions that come along with staying at the only resorts that offer a Luxury Included® vacation.

Sandals and Beaches Resorts boast more than a dozen locations throughout the Caribbean, including properties on Jamaica, St. Lucia, and Antigua. Any of these islands offer romantic, tropical backdrops perfect for a destination wedding.

Though located in Mexico, Cancun and Riviera Maya are set on the Yucatan Peninsula, and share turquoise-clear waters with the Caribbean Sea. This region is a favorite for newlywed couples, offering sun-kissed shores, lush scenery and a wide selection of all-inclusive resorts, including many that cater to an adults-only clientele, and are ideal for romance.

In Riviera Cancun, Now Sapphire is an ideal resort for a destination wedding. Couples have the choice of several locations, including the white-sand beach and a seaside gazebo. A dedicated wedding staff to help with all arrangements. Afterwards, couples can have a rose petal Jacuzzi bath waiting for them in their room, complete with champagne and strawberries.

To get started planning a destination wedding, couples can contact a Liberty Travel Vacation Expert today by calling 1.877.LIBERTY or by inquiring online at libertytravel.com.

Offering expert knowledge, personal service and great prices, Liberty Travel Vacation Experts are here make planning a destination wedding easy, affordable and fun. Couples who plan their wedding also have access to added benefits like Save the Date cards and Liberty Travel's Honeymoon Registry.

ENDS

Released on January 27, 2011

Contact: PR [at] libertytravel.com